CRN 35009 COLLABORATIVE LAW TRAINING – 1 SEMESTER HOUR CREDIT, PASS/FAIL

This course is a two-day intensive training in the newest process in Alternative Dispute Resolution. Students at the training will be instructed in making the paradigm shift from the litigation to the collaborative model, in teaching clients to utilize interest-base negotiations (as opposed to positional bargaining) in fashioning a settlement, and in utilizing other professionals in assisting clients in reaching their goals. The faculty will utilize various instructional techniques, including lectures, live and video demonstrations, and role-plays.

CRN 35005 DEPOSITION SKILLS – 2 SEMESTER HOURS CREDIT, PASS/FAIL PROJECT

This course is designed to provide students with the skills necessary to take and defend depositions. Students will explore why and when to take depositions; how to draft deposition notices for individual deponents, non-party witnesses, and corporate designees; how to draft successful deposition outlines; proper deposition questions and objections; and approaches to dealing with unruly and unprofessional opposing counsel during depositions. Students will take and defend several mock depositions. The course is graded on a pass/fail basis.

CRN 35003 ECONOMIC SKILLS FOR LITIGATORS – 2 SEMESTER HOURS CREDIT, PASS/FAIL PAPER

Students will learn practical litigation tools drawn from the Law & Economics field. Unlike the regular Law & Economics seminar course, which focuses more on theory and a lengthy paper to fill the substantial writing requirement for graduation, this course will focus on more practical, concrete arguments that litigators can include in briefs and arguments, as well as strategy considerations during settlement negotiations and litigation planning. This course will be graded Pass/Fail and the grade will be based on the written essays completed in response to the daily problem sets, as well as class participation and preparedness.

CRN 35006 ESTATE PLANNING CLINIC – 2 SEMESTER HOURS CREDIT, PASS/FAIL

Prerequisite: Wills, Trusts & Estates or a Probate Clinic (this includes the Guardianship Clinic)

This is a hands-on direct representation clinic addressing the estate planning needs of a client with a modest estate. The beginning of this course will teach students basic interviewing & counseling skill sets using a class room lecture component, simulation exercises, and a 2-hour supervised live-client interview. Depending on student enrollment and client availability, students will work solo OR be paired in teams of two. Subsequently, and within the contextual needs of a client's articulated needs and goals, students will draft the appropriate array of seven potential estate planning documents. Document review with the client (and potential document execution) is targeted for the final class day. The final portion of the class will address post-execution issues. Students will be given a project to draft and submit the week following the end of class. No absences are allowed. This course is graded on a pass/fail basis.

CRN 35007 ETHICS FOR CRIMINAL PROSECUTORS - 2 SEMESTER HOURS CREDIT, PASS/FAIL

This course will explore the ethical obligations and responsibilities of a prosecutor. The prosecutor has a unique charge to do justice while at the same time representing her client. Typical professional responsibility courses seldom have the time to cover the particular ethical issues faced by government lawyers in criminal cases. This course is intended to expand the student's basic understanding of the ethical rules and prepare the student for the ethical challenges he or she is likely to face when engaged in the legal profession as a criminal practitioner.

CRN 35001 INTERNET LEGAL RESEARCH – 1 SEMESTER CREDIT, PASS/FAIL

This course concentrates on Web browsers and Web search and indexing tools, and will emphasize the location and content of primary and secondary legal materials on the Internet. The course is graded on a pass/fail basis.

CRN 35008 LAW OFFICE MANAGEMENT – 2 SEMESTER HOURS CREDIT, PASS/FAIL

This course examines the issues encountered in establishing and operating a successful law office, for either a solo practitioner or small firm. Students will create an individual business plan, covering such subjects as: client generation and retention; filing and control systems; accounting methods; insurance programs; IOLTA, FDIC, and document retention obligations; fee determination and alternative billing options; interviewing and counseling clients, and cost-effective legal research options.

CRN 35004 NONPROFIT INCORPORATION – 1 SEMESTER CREDIT, PASS/FAIL

Students will learn how to incorporate various types of nonprofit entities, how to apply for state and federal tax exemption, and special legal issues to keep in mind as they counsel startup nonprofits. At the end of the course, students should have the necessary knowledge and practice to perform a complete incorporation for a nonprofit organization in Texas.

This is a one hour skills course. Students will complete exercises of drafting Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, obtaining an Employer Identification Number from the IRS, applying for 501(c)3 status, etc. Graded on a Pass/Fail basis – course requires completion of a drafting project within 28 days after the two days of class lecture.

CRN 35011 PROSECUTING & DEFEND ATTRN GRIEVANCE CASES - 2 SEMESTER HOURS CREDIT, PASS/FAIL

The students will be given opportunities to familiarize themselves with and take part in all stages of development of an attorney grievance claim from its initial filing with the state licensing board to the final appeal of the decision. The students will work on interviewing witnesses and preparing statements and questions for a disciplinary hearing and will have opportunities to engage in oral advocacy. The students will explore various ethical issues and learn how to properly handle them, a skill that will come in handy when they are facing numerous real life ethical issues head on. The course is graded on a pass/fail basis.
